Imerica Life and Health Insurance Company Presents:

1STBANK Health Savings Accounts

Health insurance is changing dramatically, and Imerica and FirstBank are here to help you take advantage of new opportunities.

Many employers, families and individuals are choosing high deductible health plans due to rising costs, but many are also concerned about how to pay for medical expenses before the deductible is met.

Today, there is a new choice – Health Savings Accounts or HSAs.

An HSA allows an employer or individual to make tax-deductible contributions to a savings account, which the employee may then use to pay for medical expenses. Self-employed individuals may also have health savings accounts. In such cases, the business owner is both the employer and the employee.

SAVE ON TAXES.

HSAs are similar to IRAs in that contributions to an HSA are tax-exempt and the earnings are tax-deferred. If funds are used for qualified medical expenses, HSA assets are never taxed.

PAY MEDICAL EXPENSES.

For HSA assets to retain their tax free status, funds may be used for only certain expenses including:

- Actual medical expenses, including doctor visits, prescriptions, transportation to get medical care, and dental care
- Long-term care insurance
- Healthcare insurance coverage when unemployed, certain continuation-of-benefit healthcare coverage, and certain health insurance after age 65

HSA funds used for non-qualified expenses are subject to taxes and a 10% IRS penalty.

SAVE FOR RETIREMENT.

Any funds remaining in your HSA at the end of the year roll over to the next year and can continue building tax-deferred, year after year. At age 65, you may withdraw your HSA funds with no penalties. If you use the money for eligible medical expenses, the funds remain tax-exempt.

YOUR HSA BELONGS TO YOU.

Regardless of who makes contributions to your HSA, the account belongs to you. You cannot lose it even if you change jobs. You may even use it to pay for healthcare insurance if you become unemployed.

USE IT, OR LET YOUR HSA GROW – YOU DECIDE.

You are not required to use your HSA to pay for healthcare expenses. You may use other funds for healthcare and let the money in your HSA continue to grow.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO ESTABLISH AN HSA?

As an Imerica policyholder, you are an eligible individual for any month if you are:

- Covered under an HDHP on the first day of the month and
- Not also covered by any other health plan that is not an HDHP (with limited exceptions) and
- Not enrolled for benefits under Medicare and
- Not eligible to be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return

WHAT IS CONSIDERED AN HDHP?

A high-deductible health plan (HDHP) is an insurance policy that meets certain dollar limits as shown in the table below:

2008 HDHP LIMITS*
	Self Only	Family
2008 Annual Deductible	$1,100 or more	$2,200 or more
2008 Annual Deductible plus out-of-pocket expenses cannot exceed	$5,600	$11,200

*HDHP limits are revised each year to reflect cost-of-living increases.

Your Imerica HDHP is HSA qualified.

WHAT ARE THE ANNUAL HSA CONTRIBUTION LIMITS?

The contribution limit for individuals for 2008 is $2,900, and the contribution limit for families is $5,800.

Contribution limits are revised each year to reflect cost-of-living increases.

If you have attained age 55 before the close of the taxable year, you may also contribute an additional amount known as a "catch-up" contribution.

Catch-up contribution limits are as follows: $900 in 2008 and $1000 in 2009 and following years.

Please check with your Imerica representative for HDHP details.

4. DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

At the time of my death, the primary beneficiaries named below will receive my HSA assets. If all of my primary beneficiaries die before me, the contingent beneficiaries named below will receive my HSA assets. In the event a beneficiary dies before me, such beneficiary's share will be reallocated on a pro-rata basis to the other beneficiaries that share the deceased beneficiary's classification as a primary or contingent beneficiary. If all of the beneficiaries die before me, my HSA assets will be paid to my estate. If no percentages are assigned to beneficiaries, the beneficiaries will share equally. If the percentage total for each beneficiary classification does not equal 100 percent, any remaining percentage will be divided equally among the beneficiaries within such class. This designation revokes and supersedes all earlier beneficiary designations which may apply to this AHSA.

Spouse's consent required in community property states (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NV, WA, TX and WI) if spouse is not named as the sole beneficiary.

I am the spouse of the HSA owner. Because of significant consequences associated with giving up my interest in the HSA, the custodian has not provided me with legal or tax advice, but has advised me to seek tax or legal advice. I acknowledge that I have received a fair and reasonable disclosure of the HSA owner's assets or property, including any financial obligations for a community property state.
